

Weekly Events at the Catholic Chaplaincy

TIMES OF SACRED LITURGY (DURING TERM TIME)

MONDAY: CHAPEL OF NAZARETH HOUSE (ACCESS VIA COLUM RD)

5:00pm - 6:00pm: Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament with Solemn Benediction

6:00pm: Holy Mass

TUESDAY: HOUSE CHAPEL AT 62

5.30pm: Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

6:00pm: Holy Mass

WEDNESDAY: HOUSE CHAPEL AT 62

12:30pm: Holy Mass

THURSDAY: HOUSE CHAPEL AT 62

6:00pm: Holy Mass

FRIDAY: HOUSE CHAPEL AT 62

5:00pm - 6:00pm: Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament with Solemn Benediction

6:00pm: Holy Mass

SATURDAY: NEWMAN HALL CHAPEL

10:00am: Holy Mass

10:30am: Confessions

SUNDAY: THE AQUINAS HALL (REAR OF 62)

5:00pm - 5:30pm: Confessions

6:00pm: Holy Mass

OTHER GATHERINGS

TUESDAY:

12:30pm-2:00pm: £1 Curry lunch in the Aquinas Hall

THURSDAY:

7pm: Cathsoc Bible Study in the Lounge at 62

FRIDAY:

7:00pm: Formation Fridays in the Lounge at 62

A weekly talk and discussion of a topic of Catholic doctrine or life.

SUNDAY:

£2 Supper after the Sunday Mass.

Events this Term

Friday, 19th April: Catholicism and the Law

A talk by retired High Court Judge Neil Bidder about his experience of being a Catholic in Public Office.

Friday, 26th April: Faith and Science

A talk by Fr Gareth Leyshon, Parish Priest of Our Lady of the Valleys Pastoral Area and Chaplain to the University of South Wales. Before entering the priesthood, he achieved a PhD in Astrophysics via the University of Wales at Cardiff University.

Saturday, 27th April: The Baldening

After having raised over £800 for charity, Danny keeps his word. We shall gather in the Aquinas Hall to witness Danny part with his beloved locks. All for a good cause, of course.

Friday, 3rd May: See, Judge, Act: Catholic Social teaching in Action

A talk by Jim Barnaville, Caritas Cardiff Co-Ordinator and longterm advocate of Catholic social teaching will share his experience over the years and some of the key features of the See, Judge, Act methodology of Cardinal Joseph Cardijn.

Saturday, 4th May: Pilgrimage to Our Lady of Penrhys

Beginning with Holy Mass at Newman at 7.00am, we will then walk the 19 miles to the ancient shrine of Our Lady of Penrhys. Do worry - we'll catch the train back!
Walking boots a must. Weather permitting, of course.

10th May: Summertime Spirituality

Fr Michael Doyle, Dean of St David's Cathedral will offer us a few hints and tips about how we might maintain and grow our spiritual life over the summer months back home.

Sunday, 12th May: Baptisms and Confirmations

God willing, we shall celebrate the baptism of two of our number and the confirmation of three more. For space, there will be no 6pm Mass in the Aquinas Hall this week but we will join the cathedral community for Mass at 5.30pm at St David's Cathedral, Charles St.

Exam Period

The chaplaincy of course, remains open during the exam period.
There will be plentiful opportunities for tea, cake and relaxation time.

Sunday, 9th June: End of year Barbecue

To celebrate the end of the academic year, we shall have a barbecue following the finally 6pm Mass of term.